Arik Karim

George Washington University
Elliott School of Intl. Affairs
1957 E St NW
Washington, DC 20052

arik.karim@gwu.edu
www.arikkarim.com
updated: 23 Oct 2026

Education

George Washington University
B.A., International Affairs & Political Science

Personal

Born 2006
American citizen

Awards and Fellowships

Enosinian Scholar (2026)
George Washington University
Critical Language Scholar (2025)
U.S. Department of State
Call For Kindness Senior Fellow (2025)
Riley's Way Foundation
Presidential Academic Scholar (2024)
George Washington University
Reagan Leadership Medalist (2024)
Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation
Pathfinders Scholar in Forensics/Speech (2024)
Palm Beach Post
Call For Kindness Fellow (2024)
Riley's Way Foundation
Reischauer Scholar (2024)
Stanford Program on International and Cross-Cultural Education
Third Prize, Universal Guidelines on AI Conference (2023)
Center for AI & Digital Policy

Essays and Theses

The Jurisprudence of Prediction Markets, George Washington University Enosinian Scholars Thesis Program (in progress)
Re-Evaluating Dual-Use Technology Regulation in the Age of AI, George Washington University Undergraduate Law Review (2026)

Conferences

2026
Abundance Corps Making Progress Conference
United Nations High-Level Political Forum
Elliott School Student Research Showcase
2025
United Nations Economic & Social Council Youth Forum
2024
United Nations General Assembly Summit of the Future
2023

Center for AI & Digital Policy Universal Guidelines on AI

Speech & Debate

First Club of the Year (2026)
American Parliamentary Debate Association
William Woods Tate Natl. Student of the Year Finalist (2024)
Natl. Speech & Debate Association
Highest-Ranked Debater in the United States (2023-24)
Natl. Speech & Debate Association
Impromptu Speaking National Champion (2021)
National Civics & Debate Championship
Congressional Debate State Champion (2021)
Florida Civics & Debate Championship